

The Lord is Risen indeed, Alleluia!

Once again on Easter Day, a beautiful setting in front of the altar greets us.

Kidman Park Church of Resurrection Altar on 1st April 2018

As we walk into the church, the change of frontal, the banners, and the stone moved from the front of the tomb and the fresh artistic floral arrangements all encourage us to have a spirit of celebration.

1 Chronicles 16: 29 "... Worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness".

As we sit and enjoy the ambience created, we are reminded again of the gift of service of so many parishioners. We thank each of them for their time, organisation, dedication and skills.

Our Easter frontal has a white background, which is not only the symbol of purity, but also of joy, reflecting the centrality of the Resurrection to our Faith. The colours radiating out highlight this.

In his sermon, Zinkoo reflected on the Book of Isaiah 25:6-9 with a strong emphasis on our hope for the future. "This is the LORD, we trusted in him; let us be glad in his salvation."

Let us rejoice also that we are able to worship together in such a welcoming setting.

"Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship with reverence and awe,"... Hebrews 12:28